Taking risks and playing it SAFE: infusing your library practice with improvisation

MALiA presents Jill Markgraf, Professor and Head of Library Research and Instruction at the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire. Jill will discuss employing tenets of improv, such as Suspending judgement, Accepting all offers, Focusing on the other, and Embracing failure (SAFE), and engage attendees in activities to enhance library practice. Join us and learn how laughter and play in the workplace are productive and essential in challenging times!
