

CONTRACTS UPDATE – 6/11/2021

Materials

The existing MALiA materials contracts with 17 vendors have been renewed with no more optional one-year renewals remaining. The renewal documents covering July 1, 2021 through June 30, 2022 have been posted on the MALiA website at <http://malialibrary.org/library-materials/>. In spring 2022, a new RFP will be issued so that new materials contracts can be in place by July 1, 2022.

Serials

A new RFP was issued in March 2021 and new serials contracts were awarded in May to three vendors: Ebsco, Jupiter, and WT Cox. These are the same vendors with existing serials contracts. The new serials contract # is LVA-SER-21-003 and the contract period is three years with two optional one-year renewals. The new serials contracts start July 1, 2021 and will be posted on the MALiA website at <http://malialibrary.org/services-3/> during the last week in June. Attachments B and C in the new serials contracts will show the vendor service requirements and discounts in effect for the contract period.

Supplies

A new RFP was issued in March 2021 and new supplies contract awards are being finalized. The new supplies contract # is LVA-SUP-21-004 and the contract period is three years with two optional one-year renewals. The new supplies contracts start July 1, 2021 and will be posted on the MALiA website at <http://malialibrary.org/library-supplies/> during the last week in June. Attachments B and C in the new supplies contracts will show the vendor service requirements and discounts in effect for the contract period.
